

Villa on sale at million and a half

Written by Donald Fullarton - Last Updated Saturday, 08 May 2010 10:02

ONE of Helensburgh's most splendid mansions, Lynton at 6 Upper Colquhoun Street, is being offered for sale by Savills Glasgow for over £1.5 million.

Designed by William Leiper and built in 1908, it contains a reception hall, four reception rooms, and six bedrooms, and is set in an acre of gardens. Also currently on the market is Carbeth House at Rhu, which was built by Madeleine Smith's father.

- Full stories in the Places section of this website.